(4) On receipt of the written statement of defence, or if no such statement is received within the time specified, the Disciplinary Authority may itself inquire into such of the charges as are not admitted or, if it considers it necessary so to do, appoint a Board of Inquiry or an Inquiring Officer for the purpose.

(5) The Disciplinary Authority may nominate any person to present the case in support of the charges before the authority inquiring into the charges (hereinafter referred to as the Inquiring Authority). The Court servant may present his case with the assistance of any other Court servant approved by the Disciplinary Authority, but may not engage a legal practitioner for the purpose unless the person nominated by the Disciplinary Authority as aforesaid is a legal practitioner or unless the Disciplinary Authority, having regard to the circumstances of the case, so permits.

The Court servant shall be entitled to cross-examine witnesses examined in support of the charges and to give evidence in person. The person presenting the case in support of the charges shall be entitled to cross-examine the Court servant and the witnesses examined in his defence. (ii) The Disciplinary Authority shall consider the representation, if any, made by the Court servant in response to the notice under clause (i) and determine what penalty, if any, should be imposed on the Court servant and pass appropriate orders on the case.

(11) In a case where one of the penalties specified in clauses (iv) to (vii) of rule 11 is imposed on a Court servant on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge or where the Disciplinary Authority is satisfied that for some reason to be recorded by that authority in writing, it is not reasonably practicable to give to the Court servant an opportunity of showing cause before imposing any of the aforementioned penalties, it shall be lawful for the Disciplinary Authority to waive the requirements of any of the provisions of this rule.

(12) Orders passed by the Disciplinary Authority shall be communicated to the Court servant who shall also be supplied with a copy of the report of the Inquiring Authority and, where the Disciplinary Authority is not the Inquiring Authority, a statement of its findings together with brief reasons for disagreement, if any, with the findings of the Inquiring Authority, unless they have already been supplied to him.

(2) In the light of the findings in the disciplinary proceeding taken against such Court servant:—

(a) if the Borrowing Authority is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (i) to (iii) of rule 11 should be imposed on such Court servant, it may in consultation with the Court pass such orders on the case as it deems necessary:

Provided that, in the event of a difference of opinion between the Borrowing Authority and the Court, the services of such servant shall be replaced at the disposal of the Court:

(b) if the Borrowing Authority is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (iv) to (vii) of rule 11 should be imposed on such Court servant, it shall replace his services at the disposal of the Court and transmit to it the proceedings of the inquiry, and thereupon the Disciplinary Authority may pass such orders on the case as it deems necessary after complying with the provisions of sub-rules (9) and (10) of rule 13:

Provided that the Disciplinary Authority may instead of making an order under this clause on the record of the inquiry transmitted by the Borrowing Authority, hold such further inquiry as it may deem necessary.

17. Disciplinary action against a Court servant on deputation to the Court from an outside authority.—(1) Where an order of suspension is made or a disciplinary proceeding is taken by the Court against a Court servant whose services have been lent to the Court by an outside authority, the Lending Authority shall forthwith be informed of the circumstances leading to the order of his suspension or the commencement of the disciplinary proceeding against him, as the case may be.

(2) In the light of the findings in the disciplinary proceeding taken against such Court servant—

37. Vindication of acts and character of Court servants.—(1) No Court servant shall, without the previous permission of the Registrar, have recourse to any Court or to the press for the vindication of his official acts or character, which have been the subject matter of adverse criticism or an attack of defamatory character. In granting permission to the recourse to a Court, the Registrar, shall, in each case, decide whether the Court shall bear the costs of the proceedings or whether the servant concerned should institute the proceedings at his own expense, and if so, whether, in the event of a decision in his favour, the Court shall reimburse to the extent of the whole or any part of the costs.

(2) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prohibit or otherwise affect the right of the Court servant from vindicating his private character or any act done by him in his private capacity.

38. Canvassing of non-official or other outside influence.—No Court servant shall bring or attempt to bring any political or outside influence to bear upon any superior authority to further his interests in respect of matters pertaining to his service in the Court.

39. Relations with Advocates or Advocates on Record.—(1) No Court servant shall have any business dealings with an Advocate or an Advocate on Record, nor shall, save with the express permission of the Registrar, share any residential accommodation with any such Advocate or Advocate on Record.

(2) The provisions of this rule shall apply notwithstanding that the Court servant is related to the Advocate or Advocate on Record concerned.

(3) This rule does not debar a Court servant from accepting an invitation from an Advocate or an Advocate on Record to a marriage party or to a social gathering.

40. Seeking of redress from Court in respect of service matters.—(1) A Court servant may seek redress from the Registrar or from the Chief Justice with the permission of the Registrar in the matter of grievance arising out of his employment or conditions of service.

(2) A Court servant who resorts to a Court of law, even in cases where such remedy is legally admissible, without first exhausting all the remedies available to him under the rules regulating his conditions of service, shall render himself liable to disciplinary action under the rules in Part III of these Rules.

41. Demonstrations and Strikes.—No Court servant shall participate in any demonstration or resort to any form of strike in connection with any matter pertaining to his conditions of service.

42. Joining of Associations by Court servants.—No Court servant shall join or continue to be a member of a Service Association which has not, within a period of six months from the date of these rules or from its formation, obtained the recognition of the Chief Justice, or recognition in respect of which has been refused by the Chief Justice.

43. Arrests on a criminal charge.—It shall be the duty of a Court servant who has been arrested on a criminal charge made or a proceeding taken against him in connection with his position as a Court servant or otherwise which is likely to embarrass him in the discharge of his duties or which involves moral turpitude, to intimate the fact of his arrest and the circumstances connected therewith, to the Registrar promptly in writing even though he might have subsequently been released on bail. Failure on the part of the Court servant concerned to so inform, will be regarded as suppression of a material information and will render him liable to disciplinary action on this ground alone, apart from any action that may be taken against him on the conclusion of the case against him.

44. Court property.—No Court servant shall take out any article or property belonging to the Court outside the Court House or premises without the express permission of the Registrar.

45. Contravention of laws and conviction by a Court of Law.—Any contravention of any law by a Court servant, which involves moral turpitude, shall be regarded as a serious matter, of which notice shall be taken departmentally.

Where such contravention is followed by a conviction in a Court of Law, the Court servant may be punished departmentally on the basis of that conviction alone without following the procedure laid down for departmental enquiries.

46. Contravention of the rules.—(1) Any Court servant contravening the provisions of any of the rules in this Part shall render himself liable to disciplinary action under the rules in Part III of these Rules.

(2) The Chief Justice shall have the power to take any action against the Registrar for contravention of the rules in this Part. In relation to matters pertaining to the conduct of the Registrar, the Chief Justice shall be the competent authority for granting the requisite permission to the Registrar in respect of anything which is required to be done with the previous permission of a superior authority under any of the rules in this Part.

PART V—MISCELLANEOUS

47. Residuary Powers.—Nothing in these Rules shall be deemed to affect the power of the Chief Justice to make such orders, from time to time, as he may deem fit in regard to all matters incidental or ancillary to these rules not specifically provided for herein or in regard to matters as have not been sufficiently provided for:

Provided that if any such order relates to salaries, allowances, leave or pensions of Court servants, the same shall be made with the approval of the President.

48. Interpretation.—All questions relating to the interpretation of these Rules shall be referred to the Chief Justice whose decision thereon shall be final:

Provided that all questions relating to the interpretation of any rule in Part II of these Rules in so far as it relates to salaries, allowances, leave or pensions shall be decided by the Chief Justice with the approval of the President.

49. Repeal and Savings.—The Supreme Court (Conditions of Service of Staff) Rules, 1951, are hereby repealed:

Provided that any order already made under the repealed rules shall continue in force and be deemed to have been made under the provisions of these rules:

Provided further that any action taken or proceedings started under the repealed rules and pending at the commencement of these rules shall be continued and disposed of as far as may be, in accordance with the provisions of these rules.
